COF282: Papua New Guinea - RS Decaf

Brown sugar, nuts, strawberry, watermelon, nice sweetness; very full and round. Hints of cotton candy. Light+ brightness and very full body.

Cupping/Tasting Notes:

In aroma I get brown sugar, spice, nuts and roasty hints with a touch of oak. In flavor I get strawberry, watermelon rind that fades to rose petal notes, a touch of nuttiness and (are you ready for this?), a little bit of cotton candy in the aftertaste. The flavors are very full and round and the full body emphasizes this. Light+ brightness adds just a bit of acidity to support the cup. Wow...
